

PAPERS OF PROFESSOR WILLIAM REGINALD (REG.) WARD

Biographical Background

Professor William Reginald (Reg.) Ward (1925-2010) was born in Chesterfield, from a Primitive Methodist background which always remained with him, although his perspectives and insights as a historian were far wider than Methodism. He read history at Oxford and went on to be appointed Professor of Modern History at the University of Durham from 1965. His Religion and Society in England, 1790-1850 was a ground-breaking contribution to scholarship. He was particularly interested in German Protestantism, including its influence on the early Methodist movement. His command of German sources was considerable. As a Methodist who was a historian he sought constantly to place religion within its widest historical landscape – a consistent feature in his many books and articles. He was never content with narrower understandings, which he constantly challenged. As a historian of Methodism he was a co-editor of the modern critical edition of the works of John Wesley and edited a volume of the correspondence of the nineteenth-century Methodist leader Jabez Bunting. He was an active member of the Ecclesiastical History Society, and President in 1972. He was awarded an honorary doctorate by the University of Basel in 1992, and a Fellow of the British Academy in 2002. He retired to Petersfield, where he continued to write and research, and participate in conferences, frequently as speaker.

Custodial History

The collection was donated to the Centre by Mrs. Barbara Ward (widow) in 2012. The papers were originally arranged by Prof. Reg. Ward into two alphabetical sequences: ‘Revival’, 12 boxes; ‘Evangelicalism’, 3 boxes, 1 wallet; microfilm, CD rom, other media, 1 box. These were possibly gathered in preparation for a volume on the eighteenth century. The files have been reorganised into the sequences at WP1-4, WP8. Other lecture notes, correspondence, and personal items are now at WP5-7.

She also says that there are more letters from Schneider, Voigt and Radötzky than those cited in Patzelt. She tells him that he is welcome to consult Francke's collection at the library and to see the enclosed leaflet for their opening times. She also tells him that they can also make microfilm copies of individual letters, at DM 0.25 per copy. She says that photocopies are unfortunately not possible.

WP6/31	I. Baldauf: Archiv der Brüder Unität	German	18 July 1984	Baldauf has received Ward's letter of 02 June 1984, his special publication dated 14 June 1984 and Ms J. Grant's letter of 21 June 1984. They say they are also looking forward to receiving Professor Baker's letter. He says that, as far as he is aware, Zinzendorf's finances, in particular the loan to the Saxon government, have never been looked at in detail using the sources available at his archive. This is the realm of an economic historian. It has only been touched upon in Spanenberg's biography on Zinzendorf, and Cranz and Cröger's historical works. Johannes Plitt wrote more about it in his 'Denkwürdigkeit' but this was so complicated that you needed to read the sources to understand it better and Ward has already studied the work done on it by Krüger and Hark. Erich Beyreuther writes a short paragraph on it that makes everything seem clear and simple but the facts should be examined in more detail. Professor Hans Schneider, formerly of Göttingen University, also discussed the topic in the Olma-Ausgabe to which Professor Ward has access. [The letter also contains lists of dates in the lives of various individuals]
WP6/32	Christiane Dickmann: Staatsbibliothek Preussischer Kulturbesitz	German	14 Dec. 1984	Christiane Dickmann from the state library tells Professor Ward that as August Hermann Francke's private collection is held by them, his letter has been passed on to them by the state archives. She says that he is welcome to consult the collection at any time, in the manuscript department's reading room. She suggests he writes to them shortly before his visit to tell them which parts of the collection he would like to look at, so that they can get them ready for him.

WP6/33	I. Baldauf: Archiv der Brüder Unität	German	1 Dec. 1986	I. Baldauf is sending, via the State Archives in Potsdam, 182 microfilm images and 34 free repeat photos. This is 3 reels in total, the third comprising 33 retakes, most of which duplicates to replace 17 shots on the first two reels. They had technical problems with the last film, with parts of the photographic layer coming off on some images. They therefore shot these again and made a third reel of these, rather than adding them to the old reels.
WP6/34	I. Baldauf: Archiv der Brüder Unität	German	1 July 1987	I. Baldauf hopes Professor Ward received his letter and the film he sent via the State Archives. In return, he asks Professor Ward to send him the following film reel from Washington: T – 1022, Roll 189. He gives the relevant address in Washington to order the reel from and asks Professor Ward to have it sent to his address in England, and to then forward it to him at the address of the State Archives in Dresden.
WP6/35	Elisabeth Kováks	German	19 Jan. 1989	Kováks thanks Professor Ward for his letter and says she is sending him photocopies of the Silesian talk that she gave on 31 October 1987 in Würzburg. She says she always likes getting his special publications, that they broaden her horizons with regard to Protestant research – even if they are meant to be very anticlerical and she can image him laughing at her facial expressions when reading his work. She says that the findings of research into the history of the evangelical church are in particular useful and fruitful for her when it comes to academic discussions with German colleagues. She also thanks him for his invitation to work with him on the Journal of Ecclesiastical History , and wonders if he thinks it would be possible to publish Professor Hutton's talk, given in parallel to his lecture at the symposium in London.

WP6/36	W. Klaiber: Evangelische- methodistische Kirche	German	10 Jan. 1990	W. Klaiber writes to Professor Ward that they have found out, from the publisher of the Theologische Realenzyklopädie [a German encyclopaedia of theology and religious studies], that he is the author of the article entitled 'Methodismus' in the encyclopaedia. This has reassured them, as they have been worried about the kind of information about Methodism in the encyclopaedia on account of some of the articles published in it, namely information in the article 'England' by Eamon Duffy, Volume 9, p. 644, 41 and p. 645, 1. They believe that it is important for an article in German to also depict Methodism in Continental Europe accurately and in sufficient detail. They offer their support to help with these sections. They suggest the name and address of a suitable proof-reader for the passages in question. They hope the article will be a reliable and inspirational source of knowledge on Methodism for the DACH region, a region in which information about Methodism is often very limited.
WP6/37	I. Baldauf of the Archiv der Bruder- Unität	German	22 Jan. 1992	Re Petrus Böhler: I. Baldauf encloses their 'Dienerblatt' on P. Böhler, which he says was actually produced – for internal archive use only – many years ago. He encloses a copy of Peter Böhler's resume from the Moravian Church's notices (1931, No. 5, p. 154-166). In the P.S., he says they would very much welcome a copy or print of Professor Ward's article on Peter Böhler for their archival library.

WP6/38	Prof. Martin Brecht: Westfälische Wilhelms- Universität	German	8 Nov. 1995	Brecht writes that he received both of Professor Ward's volumes in August and that he hadn't yet replied because he had wanted to return the favour. First, he congratulates him for his successful hard work and expertise. He says that the Wesley diaries were a great gift for him, as they have helped him learn more about the Father of Methodism. He especially wants to say how helpful he found the notes, and the volume containing the visitation papers from Hampshire is fascinating for anyone interested in this kind of document because of how much material there is and how it has been presented. He wonders if comparable material will ever be published in Wuerttemberg. He encloses with his letter the second volume of the Geschichte des Pietismus , which he says has turned out longer than he would have liked. But it has now been published and should give an extensive overview of the emergence of pietism.
WP6/39	Prof. Jörg Ohlemacher: Ernst-Moritz-Arndt-Universität Greifswald	German	17 Oct. 1997	Professor Ohlemacher informs Professor Ward that he has consulted LUISA GmbH re. his travel expenses for attending the KZG (contemporary ecclesiastical history conference). LUISA GmbH has confirmed that at least half, but probably all of his travel expenses will be covered. He says he has written a sub-chapter for Volume III of the reference book on pietism, which he encloses for Professor Ward to read. He asks Professor Ward to let him know if he comes across anything that's factually incorrect and for his feedback. He says he has another short chapter to write on the influence of the Evangelistic and Holiness Movement on the German Community Movement. He says he would be grateful for any more recent literature that Professor Ward may be able to point him in the right direction of.

				He looks forward to seeing him again soon in Wittenberg.
WP6/40	Prof. Udo Sträter: Interdisziplinäres Zentrum für Pietismusforschung, Martin Luther Universität, Halle- Wittenberg	German	11 May 1998	An invitation to the Francke Foundation's celebration of the 300-year anniversary of the founding of the 'Waisenhaus' by August Hermann Francke (1663-1727), from 21 to 23 September 1998. One of the events is an interdisciplinary colloquium on 'Orphanages before and after August Hermann Francke's founding of an orphanage in 1698', with an aim to publish the papers in Max Niemeyer Verlag's Hallesche Forschungen series. Could Ward contribute something on the social activities of English religious societies, and recommend any colleagues who could be asked to give a talk. As it has been two years since Professor Ward's talk at the start of Europe Week 1996 in Halle, they look forward to seeing him again in September.
